VICTORS IN CASCADE

The Vanquished Take Their Hats Off to the Victors.

ACOMPETENT SET OF MEN

Every One Concedes That the Winners Will Make Acceptable Officials—A Word for All of Them.

Great Falls, Nov. 7.—Now that the smoke of the local political battle has cleared away, leaving the victors in the full view of the public, partisanship has disappeared and everyone concedes that those honored with the endorsement of the voters will make acceptable and competent officials.

J. B. Leslie enjoys the reputation of being an able and impartial judge. He is a honest man, a good citizen, and carries with him to the bench the respect and esteem of the people regardless of party affiliations.

John F. Atkey has been chosen to serve a clerk of the district court and will fill the position to the satisfaction of the public and to the credit of himself.

Dr. Elsthorpe made a great race for county treasurer and captured the plum after a bitter struggle with a popular rival. He is a safe man for the responsible position and will perform his duties of the office in a conservative and acceptable manner.

L. B. McDowell has been reelected county clerk in a three-cornered fight in which he had the worst of the position. He is a competent, painstaking official and is deserving of the congratulations of his friends.

Robert Hendry of Belt will make an efficient county auditor. It is a responsible position and one that has been filled creditably for a number of years by Mr. Hendry, who has long since been regarded as the "watchdog" of the treasury. Mr. Hendry's friends will wish him success in the office to which they have elected him.

W. M. Lyter will represent the county as prosecuting officer during the next two years. He succeeds a mighty good man and is abundantly qualified to fill a position of such importance and trust. He will make a good record.

After a hard fought battle Charles Proctor has been elected sheriff, a position he will fill to the satisfaction of the public and with credit to himself. Charles is an old newspaper man and has served as deputy sheriff for the past two years. He was elected over a strong man and owes his success to his personal popularity.

William Birkenhead of Sun River dropped into the county assessorship with a majority of about 200. He is a good, square man and competent for the responsible position.

As public administrator Harry J. Skinner will prove acceptable to all. He is a good business man and enjoys the respect of those who know him best.

Dr. Bradley will make a good coroner. He is a practicing physician and thoroughly familiar with the duties of the office.

Miss Ina Craven of Sand Coulee, was elected superintendent of schools and will fill the position in a most acceptable manner. She is bright, clever, holds a first grade certificate and won the battle loyally through personal popularity.

M. S. Parker was elected county surveyor during his absence in the East and doesn't know of the fact at this time. He is a civil engineer of recognized ability and will fill the office to the satisfaction of the public.

James Erickson, J. J. Patterson and B. P. McNair, were chosen to serve as county commissioners. They are representative citizens, not persistent office-seekers, and will fill their respective positions with signal ability. The affairs of the county will be conducted in a business-like way and there will be no leakages from the treasury that will not be stopped as soon as they are induced into office.

Anthony Morton and George O'Malley of Sand Coulee, C. F. Stork of Belt, and Emmett R. Cullen of Great Falls, were elected to the legislature. The first three are farmers, representative men, who are opposed to monopolies and who will support anti-railroad legislation first, last and all the time; Mr. Carroll is a representative of organized labor, a good talker, ready debater and will be found advancing the interests of the working people at all times; George H. Stanton, the fifth and last member, is a clever young lawyer, who has built up a large practice in this city during the past three years. He will be found working for the interest of the people of his district at all times and will be one of the leaders in the house this winter.

A HUGE KICK.
Something Wrong With the Great Falls-Lewistown Mail Service.

Great Falls, Nov. 7.—There is a good deal of complaint regarding the irregular delivery and unnecessary delay of newspaper mail between this city and Lewistown. It is alleged that sacks of newspapers are "sidetracked" at stage stations for one, two and three days at a time and that the delayed sacks are then forwarded all together once or twice a week, or whenever the load of express matter and passengers is sufficiently light to permit of the heavy sacks being handled with ease and convenience by the drivers and agents of the stage company. This careless method of tossing aside daily newspaper mail is annoying to readers and subscribers, who are quick to resent and protest against delivery service of this character. It is claimed that all newspaper mail leaves Great Falls and Lewistown, terminal points, promptly on time, but that the delay occurs at intermediate points, where the stage is overloaded, the roads bad or the stock in poor condition. There is room for radical improvement in the service and it is hoped it will be made in the immediate future.

THE MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 7.—The volume of business to-day was upon an extraordinary scale for a half holiday, 320,000 shares, which has not been equaled on any Saturday since the Venezuelan episode. Aggressive strength was displayed all along the line with a tendency of the market, the ease with which the offers were absorbed exciting general interest and comment.

HER HEAVY LUNCH.

The Stout Lady's Experience With a Penny-in-the-Slot Machine.

From the Boston Globe.
It was noon at a quick-lunch restaurant, and nearly every place was occupied by a hungry individual, when a stout lady entered. The only spot she saw vacant was at the end of a counter, and here there stood a penny-in-the-slot weighing machine.

As she was in a hurry, she concluded to stand on the scales, after having satisfied herself that they would not operate and reveal her weight unless she put in a coin, and this was far from her intentions.

She was short and plump, and the platform of the scales brought her up to a very convenient height at the counter. She ordered her lunch, and, after looking around at the dial of the machine to reassure herself that she was not being weighed, she began her gustatory enjoyment.

Just then two rather sporty chaps came in. They noticed the woman on the scales at once. She had a pretty face, if not an attractive figure—or, perhaps, one should say, as well as an attractive figure, for the latter certainly attracted attention from its size.

"I'll bet you'll dinners she weighs over 200," said one of the sports.

"I'll go you," replied the other. "But how can we tell which wins? The machine isn't working."

"We'll soon make it work," said sport No. 1. "Here, boy," he added, speaking to a youngster who was selling papers, "a you go and put a cent in the slot of that machine with the woman on it, and I'll give you a dime."

"Let's see yer dime," said the boy, with worldly caution.

"There you are," and the sport put the money in the urchin's hand.

The latter found his task an easy one, for the victim was very busy getting outside of a dish of soup. She did just as the boy put the penny in the slot, but several others did, and the joke went around the counter almost as quickly as the hand on the weighing machine went around to the figure marking the woman's avoirdupois.

"You pay for the dinners," said sport No. 1, triumphantly to No. 2.

"That's right," was the response, and in went their orders.

The fat lady wiped off her chubby mouth, laid down the napkin and took up her pocketbook to get the wherewithal to pay her check, when her eye fell on the dial of the machine. "Great heavens!" said she, half aloud, "the hand has moved!"

Yes, it had moved a long distance, and stood honestly and steadily pointing at 211.

She glanced around the corner, and, perceiving that she was the focus of all the eyes in a row of smiling faces, she was so mad that she rushed out of the restaurant and forgot to pay her bill.

JOHNSON IS POLITE

The Swede Has a Mania for Saluting Every Lady He Sees.

HE'S MENTALLY DEFECTIVE

McKinley Men Are Anxious to Sit in the Front Seats—To Defeat the Sale of the Defunct Bank Assets—Great Falls News.

Great Falls, Nov. 7.—A Swede named Johnson was arraigned before Judge Hawkins this morning on a charge of being a nuisance. The man is believed to be wrong mentally and will be sent to the county hospital for treatment. For the past week he has been guilty of following different ladies and addressing them when opportunity occurred. He would raise his hat, make a profound bow, and at times solicit an embrace. So far as known he has offered no further insult to anyone, but several ladies have been frightened at his persistent attentions. He is a small man, rather neatly dressed, speaks English fluently and is evidently well educated. His hair is tinged with gray and he is about 45 years of age. Unless his mental condition is improved at the hospital Johnson will be sent to the asylum for treatment.

The members of the McKinley-Hobart club in this city held a ratification meeting to-night and speeches galore were delivered by the leaders of that organization, the membership of which has materially increased since the result of Tuesday's great fight is known. There is said to be a grand rush for front seats at the pie counter now and the original members of the club express some fear that they will be crowded to the rear by the enthusiasm of the latter-day converts.

At a meeting of the city council last night Alderman McDonnell offered a resolution, to be forwarded to Comptroller Eckels, asking that the sale of the assets of the defunct Merchants' National bank, in which the city was a depositor to the extent of $14,000, be postponed from Dec. 7 to Jan. 15. The reason assigned for the resolution is that Dec. 7 is the last day on which taxes can be paid without a penalty, and a great deal of money will be in demand at that time, making funds scarce for at least 30 days. Alderman Thompson moved the adoption of the resolution. Alderman Marjoni thought that the resolution should be amended so as to require a judgment against each debtor to the defunct bank before the assets be offered for sale. Alderman Fitzgerald agreed with Alderman Thompson, and moved that the resolution be referred back to a committee to make the proper amendment and forward the same to the comptroller of currency.
